- All abstracts must be submitted in English.
- All abstracts submitted must be original work.
- The author is responsible for the accuracy of the abstract.
- All presenters of accepted submissions are expected to register and pay to access the Congress.
- The acceptance of an abstract does not imply provision of registration for the Australasian Diabetes Congress 2020, nor any other costs associated with preparation or presentation of the abstract, or any costs associated to the congress.
- All abstracts are reviewed by members of the Congress Scientific Program Committee. The Committee's decision is final.
- By submitting your abstract, you agree to have your abstract (if accepted) published on the website.
- References are not required. If you wish to include them, they must be included in the body of your text and included in the 300 word count.
- Special symbols and formatting are to be used sparingly. Once your submission is complete, please read your abstract in full to ensure the symbols are displayed correctly.
- Proposed studies/presentations should be significantly advanced or completed at the time of abstract submission.

Online Submission Instructions

All proposals must be submitted via the online submission form (X-CD).

Register here

The online proposal form will require you to submit your proposals in two steps:

1. Submit the proposal information – fill out proposal fields
2. Add any additional authors

Create a Profile

Click on create a profile if you are a new user, or login using your existing details.

It is important to ensure that all profiles linked to a submission are correct and up-to-date.

Once you have created your profile you will be asked to login in using these details.

When you have finished creating a new submission, X-CD will automatically assign you as a main presenter.

Once you have completed all submission fields, you will then be able to add co-authors by:

- Selecting an existing contact from the drop-down menu (someone who already has a user profile)
Begin by typing part of their last name. Make sure to select the correct person, in the correct organisation. You will not be able to view their full contact information. Co-speaker/s will be added to your proposal and will be sent an automated email with login instructions and details of the proposal.
OR
- Adding a new contact (someone who does NOT have a user profile, or may work for a different organisation than listed)
You must enter their email address and other required contact information. Please note that you will not be able to edit the information once you hit 'Add Co-Author' button. Co-author/s will be sent an automated email with login instructions and details of the submission.

Submitting an abstract

Click on start abstract and complete all submission fields. Please ensure caps is not used in your title and throughout your abstract and your spelling is correct.

Once you are satisfied with your submission click submit abstract. You will be given an ID number, please use this in any communication when emailing the conference office.

You can then select add author or skip. Please ensure all author/s details that are entered is correct.

Speaker registration fee

The acceptance of a proposal does NOT include registration, or any costs associated with attendance at the congress.

If you are submitting a proposal on behalf of someone else, please ensure ALL speakers are aware of the speaker registration fees for attending ADC 2020.

Speakers of accepted proposals will need to register before early bird closes on 1 September 2020.

Withdrawing an abstract

If you want to withdraw an abstract, please contact the Conference Office in writing via email to adc@thinkbusinessevents.com.au. Please note that withdrawals need to be communicated in writing by the author who originally submitted the abstract, and in doing so, the Conference Office assumes that all other authors/presenters have been informed of the withdrawal.
